USED VICTIM'S OWN PISTOL

Negro, After Examining Weapon, Held Up Storekeeper.

Entering a secondhand store at No. 1416 Market street yesterday afternoon on the pretense of making a purchase, John H. Mayfield, a negro, selected the best revolver in stock and, after asking for some ammunition, loaded the revolver and or-ammunition, loaded the revolver and ordered M. M. Schinderman, the proprietor, to hold up his hands.

Schinderman obeyed and the negro began selecting articles which suited his fancy. Arthur Keiser, who was working in the rear of the store, saw the negro, and, running up behind him, knocked the revolver, which he still had pointed at Schinderman, from his hands.

A struggle followed. Schinderman, with the aid of Keiser, succeeded in throwing the negro to the floor.

Outsiders were attracted and called the police. Mayfield was arrested and a warrant will be applied for this morning.
